Smith Lays Final Campaign Plans

By PAUL R. HELLON
NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—(U.P.)—Back again on his native sidewalk, Gov. Alfred E. Smith went through a round of conferences with his campaign leaders today, formulating details for the final big drive. This effort will carry him through four speeches in the metropolitan area, the first tomorrow night at Newark and the last to be delivered over a national radio.

Verdict Of Jury In Auto Case Reversed

A man on trial for driving while under the influence of liquor cannot be found guilty of a charge of reckless driving in the opinion of the district court of appeals.

In reversing a decision of a jury in Judge A. B. McKenzie's court, the district court held that the two charges are separate.

Appeal from the verdict was taken by Will S. Roberson representing James McGrath of Richmond. McGrath was charged with driving while intoxicated. The jury after deliberating for some time was unable to reach a verdict and asked the court if it might find the defendant guilty of reckless driving.

After looking up decisions in such matters Judge McKenzie was of the opinion that the jury could find the evidence warranted bring in a verdict finding the man guilty of reckless driving. The jury later brought in a verdict of reckless driving and McGrath received a jail sentence.

In appealing Roberson was of the opinion that the two charges were separate. As the charges have become outlawed owing to a time element McGrath will not have to stand another trial according to Roberson. Notification of the decision was received by Roberson yesterday.

Engineer To Tell Of County Tunnel

MARTINEZ, Oct. 20.—George L. Posey, engineer of Alameda county, and R. R. Arnold, Contra Costa county surveyor, will explain the physical aspects of the proposed tunnel through the Alameda-Contra Costa hills to the members of the district board of directors at the bore site next Monday.

Data will be secured by surveyors engaged by Posey and Arnold as soon as the directors decide upon a general location for the tunnel. The type of tunnel has not been decided upon but Posey is known to favor a twin bore with one way traffic through each. He has proposed connecting links at stated distances to permit ingress and exit from one bore to the other in case an accident should occur to either.

Richmond Men To Inspect Sewer Plan

Edward A. Hoffman, city engineer, and John Miller will leave today for Los Angeles where they will inspect the sewerage system of the southern city.

Los Angeles has had difficulty with concrete pipes of a sewerage system installed during the last few years. The action of sewer gas decomposed sections of the pipes causing damages amounting to thousands of dollars. During the last seven months the city and outside engineers have been conducting tests to overcome the conditions.

The tests will be explained to engineers throughout the state who will gather to inspect the sewerage system. Hoffman and Miller will return to Richmond Monday.

MIRA VISTA SCHOOL PLANS

Coincident with the announcement of plans for a pedestrian tunnel to cross San Pablo avenue at Roosevelt avenue, for the safety of school children, added impetus was given to the report that the Richmond school board is contemplating the purchase of a school site in the Mira Vista section.

A site has already been inspected, it is reported, on Barrett avenue. It is owned by the East Richmond Heights Land company represented by the M. A. Hays company.

However, before the board of school trustees can purchase any site for a school house they will have to give public notice that a meeting will be held on a specified date to consider such matters, and property owners on the section will be at liberty to offer to the trustees other sites that would be suitable for school purposes.

School officials who refused to be quoted on the progress being made for the establishment of the school in the Mira Vista district stated that the building of the tunnel did not seem necessary at this time.

PIGGY WIGGLY STORES SOLD

Purchase of the Piggy Wiggly chain of stores by the Merrill and company of New York was announced in Oakland yesterday. The sale directly effects the two stores operated in Richmond by the company.

Although the purchase price was not made public, it was stated that stockholders received about $2,000,000 in cash and each original stockholder who paid $100 a share for his stock received $1500 or 1500 percent on his original investment.

The firm of Merrill and Lynch are said to be large operators in chain store securities. They have financed several thousand chain stores within the past few years.

Juror Fined In Stockton Bribe Trial

STOCKTON, Oct. 30.—(U.P.)—The second trial of Sheriff W. H. Riecks and Supervisors J. Y. Coates, accused of accepting bribes after the place of an "incompetent" juror had been filled.

When the session started Judge Stanley Murray called George Horvath, one of the jurors selected Monday to the witness stand and Horvath admitted he had a fixed opinion that the two officials were innocent. Judge Murray fined Horvath $250 for contempt of court and dismissed him as incompetent.

The jury disagreed at the first trial of the two men. The two men are accused of accepting a bribe to "cover up" operations of an alleged "bootlegging."

Witches Brew

BLACK MAGIC for Hallowe'en being prepared by Leila Hyams who will be among those frolicking in honor of the gay old custom tonight. Richmond is observing the event with numerous parties.

HALLOWE'EN WELCOMED HERE BY GAY PARTIES, DANCES

Tonight ghosts will walk; witches will mount their trusty brooms and with black cats as companions, fly about; goblins and fairies will have their night in the world; fences will be uprooted, small shacks will be moved and the police will be busy.

Tonight is Hallowe'en. Richmond is observing the event with a round of parties, dances and similar events. It is only in America that Hallowe'en is now observed with parties, and merry making and practical jokes. But Hallowe'en dates back farther than the history of this land.

First Observance
Hallowe'en was first observed in England years and years ago. (Continued on Page 4)

Special Police For Hallowe'en

It is all in innocent fun, of course, but some times the youth of Richmond forgets itself on Hallowe'en night and carries its fun too far.

To protect property owners and keep the enthusiasm of the boys in check, the Richmond police force will have about 40 special police on the job tonight.

The police will not interfere with any innocent fun, but arrests will be made if property is damaged.

NEWARK MAN INJURED AS FREIGHT DEMOLISHES AUTO

Joseph A. Silva of Newark was seriously injured and his light coupe was completely wrecked when he was struck by an Oakland bound Santa Fe train at the San Pablo avenue crossing last night. This is the second accident that has occurred at the San Pablo crossing within the last six weeks.

Silva is stated, did not see the train which traveling at a slow speed. His car was carried a distance of almost 500 feet. Silva was believed to have been thrown clear of the wreckage.

Silva was taken to the Abbott Emergency hospital by Traffic Officer Eddie Baker where he was treated by Dr. U. S. Abbott.

EL CERRITO MAN ENDS LIFE

Believed to have been despondent because of illness, Felice Deria, 41, a laborer residing at 114 Cypress avenue, El Cerrito, yesterday placed the muzzle of a shotgun against his head and pulled the trigger with a string.

According to Peter Deria, 1515 Curtis street, El Cerrito, brother of the dead man, Deria returned from work yesterday morning complaining of feeling ill. They put him in bed at his home and Peter Deria went out to a drug store to get some medicine.

When he returned he found his brother lying on the bed, dead. W. P. Drummer, of the coroner's office, and Traffic Officer Floyd Gilbert of El Cerrito investigated the case.

The body is at the local morgue. Deceased is survived by his brother, Peter.

GIRL FED TO FURNACE FIRE

LAKE BLUFF, Ill., Oct. 30.—(U.P.)—Miss Freda Knaak, former school teacher, who either sought to take her own life or was the victim of a fiendish attack, was found burned probably fatally in the basement of the Lake Bluff village hall today.

The girl's feet, head and hands were badly burned. Her nude form was found lying near a furnace, the door of which was open.

The upper part of Miss Knaak's body was covered with soot indicating that the girl or someone who attacked her had made an unsuccessful attempt to end her life in the furnace fire. The firebox, police explained, was too small to permit the girl's body to be forced inside.

Oil Promoters Found Guilty In Fraud Trial

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 30.—(U.P.)—A jury in federal court tonight found Jacob Berman guilty of seven counts of an indictment charging use of the mails to defraud in the sale of Lewis Oil company's "gold notes" and not guilty on two counts.

Sentence of five years imprisonment, a $10,000 fine, or both may be imposed.

In addition to being president of the defunct firm which bore his name, Lewis was president of the Julian Petroleum corporation which figured in a disastrous 5,000,000 share stock over-issue.

Berman, alias Jack Bennett, was associated with Lewis in the Julian company. In the recent Julian Petroleum trial prosecution of Lewis, Berman and two score other defendants was dismissed by Superior Judge Doran who intimated from the bench that only "poor handling" of the case by District Attorney Asa Keyes permitted the promoters to go free.

Lewis and Berman were released tonight on $10,000 bail each to appear Monday for sentence. They of President Wilson, Clemenceau, former premier of France, Lloyd-

Huge Dirigible May Complete Flight Today

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—(U.P.)—Under fair skies and with a favorable wind pushing it ahead at high speed the dirigible Graf Zeppelin approached the European continent late tonight, victorious over fierce gales and driving rains which had battered its silver sides along the north Atlantic air lanes.

Far past the half way mark on the return trip to Friedrichshafen, Germany, the trans-Atlantic dirigible was within less than 1000 miles of the northern coast of France when it passed over the Dutch steamer Westerdijk at 7:15 (EST) and apparently pointing its nose southeast toward France which would be sighted early Wednesday if the present weather is maintained.

As dusk dropped over the Atlantic, the silvery commercial dirigible was more than 55 hours out of the Lakeland, N. J., naval air station and cruising, apparently at fair speed, over rough water on which the passengers could see ice cakes tossed about. From the cabins and saloon of the Graf Zeppelin, the welcome report of "all's well" was broadcast occasionally to ships at sea.

Hoover Silent As Drive Nears Close

By THOMAS L. STOKES
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—(U.P.)—Herbert Hoover will continue his policy of ignoring attacks from Gov. Alfred E. Smith until the close of the campaign six days hence, despite the democratic candidate's apparent intention to challenge him directly in a whirlwind finish.

Hoover has declined to enter any debate with his opponent, and there was only silence today on the most biting attack Smith has made—the Baltimore speech in which he again raised the religious issue, denounced intolerance and attempted to link up the republican national committee directly with Ku Klux Klan and anti-saloon league activities and Hoover himself by association.

Position Clear
Hoover feels he has made his position clear by his denunciation of injection of intolerance in the campaign, it was said at his headquarters, and does not see that

Robert Lansing, War Leader Dies

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—(U.P.)—One of the leading figures of the world war passed into history here today when Robert Lansing, secretary of state under President Wilson, died suddenly of heart trouble.

His death strikes another name from the roll of statesmen of the war days. Only four now are left who were instrumental in directing the policies of the allies—Col. E. M. House, confidential advisor of President Wilson, Clemenceau, former premier of France, Lloyd-

George, former premier of Great Britain and Rear Admiral C. V. Grayson, who acted as the intermediary between the president and Lansing. Since the war, Lansing has engaged in the practice of international law in Washington. In recent years he also had been general counselor to the Chinese legation. On October 5, he suffered a heart attack. Since then he had gradually until the crisis came late today.

A LAME THRUST AT PROPOSAL NO. 1

(From Stockton Record)

The San Francisco Examiner, in opposing the federal plan of reapportionment for California's Legislature, upon which the people must vote next month professes to find the plan "minority rule." It also terms the resultant effect on the metropolitan districts "taxation without representation."

The federal plan, as has often been explained, provides for one state senator from each county, regardless of population, thus giving the rural districts control of one branch of the law-making body. The Assembly would continue to be made upon a population basis. In this way, a happy balance would be secured. This equitable division between the two sections, the Examiner calls "minority rule." Does the Examiner also believe that the populous centers of the United States suffer from "minority rule" or "taxation without representation," merely because the United States Senate seats are equally divided between all the states, two from each, sparsely settled Nevada as well as mighty New York?

Happily our forefathers, who framed the Constitution and had more wisdom than Mr. Hearst, anticipate the danger of control of both houses of the legislative branches of government going to the densely settled areas. So it was arranged that representation in one house should always be based on geography rather than population. This system that has worked out so satisfactorily for Uncle Sam has been the pattern for thirty of the states in the Union, including New York, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Ohio and others where there was a danger of the big cities gaining absolute control.

This plan should be of equal benefit to California. The people of the Golden State so decided in 1926, when they approved the federal plan by a substantial majority and a majority vote. In 57 out of the 58 counties. The 1927 legislature passed a redistricting act to carry out the people's mandate. Then selfish urban interests held up the law-makers' program by referendum. This obstructionist procedure should be severely rebuked and settled for all time by a large affirmative vote on Proposition No. 1 in November.

Of course we do not claim to know anything about how the election is going to turn out, but it's our conviction that Babe Ruth is a better home-run hitter than he is a political prophet.

BEAUTY

All care of the skin is based on cleanliness and it is up to every woman who wants to keep her skin clear and smooth to study herself carefully before choosing her method of cleansing.

Only those with oily skins can afford to use soap and water, and they should be careful to use soft water and a pure, non-irritating soap. Dry skins are made drier and more inclined to lines unless soap and water are avoided. A good cleansing cream should be one that seems to melt into the pores when it comes into contact with the warmth of the skin. Usually a heavier greasier cream tends to stretch the pores and leaves them enlarged and prone to blackheads.

After applying your cleansing cream, leave it on a few moments and then wipe it off with a clean towel or cleansing tissue. The latter is to be preferred in my opinion because it can be thrown away after it has been used and fresh eliminating the danger of carelessly using a soiled or greasy towel. Cosmetics should never be applied after the use of cleansing cream until an astringent lotion has been put on and allowed to remain a few moments. Otherwise the pores are left open and will become clogged with the powder and rouge.

Never, no matter how tired you are, go to bed with your powder

AND THE WORST IS YET TO COME

The Wellington

and rouge still on. It will only take a few moments to cleanse the face and use your astringent and your skin will benefit immeasurably from this care.

RICHMOND CLUB SHOW PROVES BIG SUCCESS

The Richmond club last night presented its second and final showing of the American musicals at the Richmond clubhouse. It was amid a general feeling of regret that the grand finale song was rendered.

The songs, dances, skits and "wise cracks" had met with tremendous applause at both performances and those participating in the affair are to be commended upon their good work.

Although the affair was strictly amateur the players presented the offerings like "old timers" who had made nightly appearances before the flood lights for years.

The solo song by Mrs. C. P. Desfield, Mrs. Frank Shallenberger, Mrs. M. Slosilo, Mrs. Violet Huston, Mrs. Domenica Robbins, Mrs. R. M. Fahtenholz, and Mrs. G. J. Allen were particularly pleasing. Dances by Charles and Nelda Baker were loudly applauded and Jack Martin's banjo numbers met with pleasing comment. Kitty Bogal's monologues were among the specialty numbers.

Mrs. Dan Reardon who directed the Minstrel show was interloper and Mrs. Zella Chapin and Mrs. Violet Huston were "end men."

New Razor Blade Sensation

Marvelous Engineering Achievement by World-Famous Manufacturer Wins Popular Favor

Now the fellows with tough beards and tender skins have no excuses for imperfect shaves. No complaints about old-fashioned razor blades that pull and scrape.

The Valet AutoStrip Razor—with the new "VALET" blade—is a shaving wonder. The AutoStrip Safety Razor Co., which developed it, have had all the practical experiences that make up a quarter century's devotion to shaving problems.

Introduced to the public a short time ago, this new "VALET" blade has received wide acclaim—and dealers everywhere report unusual sales.

The name VALET cut through the blade identifies this shaving marvel. Now you can do your shaving "tick" in less than 30 seconds. The first shave—and many shaves after, with the same blade—brings home to you quite forcefully the fact that shaving can be a pleasure instead of a habit.

Try the Valet AutoStrip Razor—with the new "VALET" blade. The first, second—even the tenth or fifteenth shave with the same blade, convinces you beyond doubt that before your shaving was only an uncomfortable habit—now it's a pleasure.

The name comes from "All Hallow's Eve" for tomorrow is All Saints' day. The ancients believed that on the eve before All Saints' Day the evil spirits of ghosts, goblins and witches would appear on earth to try to undo the work of the saints.

The persecution of witches reached this side of the Atlantic in the middle of the Seventeenth century. From then on the observance of Hallowe'en started. Of course it is not believed here, except by some children who believe that the dark is the hiding place of bogies who will carry them away if they are naughty.

While the original customs of Hallowe'en are being forgotten across the ocean, Americans have fostered them and are making this an occasion something like what it must have been in olden times. All Hallowe'en customs in the United States are borrowed directly or adapted from those of other countries. All superstitions everywhere and those pertaining to Christmas and New Year's have special value on Hallowe'en.

Tonight is a night of ghostly, merry revelry. Mischief-loving spirits choose it for carrying off gates or putting them out of reach. Bags filled with flour, sprinkles and other objects are rung and mysterious raps sound on doors; things are thrown into halls and door knobs are stolen.

Yes it is fun night tonight for young America.

CASTING OFFICE FAR FROM STUDIO

The most unique casting office for motion pictures in the world was established at the little town of St. Michaels, Maryland, more than 3000 miles away from Hollywood recently.

Located in the tiny cabin of an old-fashioned boat, and presided over by Director Rowland V. Lee, it was as busy as any casting office at the studios in the film capital.

There were sailors, oystermen, shipbuilders, townsmen, merchants, schoolgirls, housewives and dozens of other people, all of them tiny parts in the film, "The First Kiss" which Lee directed on the eastern shore of Chesapeake Bay. The film stars Fay Wray and Gary Cooper.

Every set used by Director Lee in the production of "The First Kiss" for Paramount is a "natural." That is, it was mentioned in the original story by Tristram Tupper, "Four Brothers," from which the screen play was adapted. It has a section of the Chesapeake Bay shoreline for a locale. For this reason, an entire company was sent from Hollywood to photograph the motion picture.

The extras who were chosen for parts in "The First Kiss" joined a supporting cast consisting of Lane Chandler, Leslie Fenton, Paul Fix, Malcolm Williams, G. Nash and Monroe Owsley.

The picture opens today at the California theatre.

RINGWORM SPREAD Grape WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—(U.P.)—More than one half of the adult population is believed to suffer from ringworm of the hands and feet, the Public Health Service said today.

Ringworm, about which little was known until recently, is most frequent during hot weather and is encountered in every part of the country, though most prevalent in the south in the Gulf States, it was said, virtually the entire population has had the disease at some period.

The infection is often obtained from mats in dressing rooms of swimming pools or gymnasiums. Food has nothing to do with the disease, the Health Service added.

Scout Leaders

Encampment

Members of the Richmond Scout Leaders' school and the Pittsburg school will hold an overnight hike Nov. 17 to 18 at the new Boy Scout camp site which is expected to be selected before that date.

The future Scout leaders will be given a taste of Boy Scout camp life in order that they may be able to direct camps for the boys.

E. H. Moyer, of the county Scout council, addressed the group last night and told them of the plans for the new Scout camp. Several sites are being inspected by the camp committee from the county board. The camp will have facilities for Scoutmasters' wives.

The responsibilities of taking boys for overnight hikes were discussed by Moyer.

Later a discussion group under the direction of Bradford Hobbs and Ed Hill discussed outdoor activities.

The school is held here every Tuesday night. About 40 well known local men are enrolled in the course.

JOHNSTON TO BE HONORED AT DINNER

keley, Oakland and Alameda who are assisting in the Johnston campaign.

This trio has given Johnston a great deal of assistance in his campaign by appearing and speaking at meetings throughout the Eastbay.

Dr. Pardee time after time has made a plea to the voters of this section to elect Johnston to the board so that the gigantic task undertaken by the board could be completed.

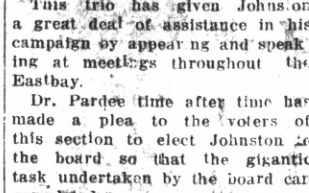

E. B. Bull assisted by Clara D. Horner and Ralph Bergen has been making arrangements for the complimentary dinner to Johnston tonight.

In order that proper preparations may be made Bull has urged all those intending to attend the session to get their reservations to the Johnston headquarters, 1205 Macdonald avenue, as soon as possible.

In announcing plans for the dinner Bull emphasized the importance to Richmond of having a local man on the board of directors. He stressed the importance of cheap water for industrial development and pointed out that this could be obtained by a close cooperation with the board of directors and having a man from Richmond on the board.

In addition to the Richmond dinner tonight many other meetings have been arranged for Johnston before the end of the campaign.

The committee is working hard to have every precinct in Richmond represented at the banquet tonight.

Prevent Flu— Check All Colds the Modern Way

Families in Richmond Urged To Be Careful

While grip and influenza are so prevalent local people are urged to use this modern way of checking little colds before they become big.

Have a jar of Vicks Vapo-Rub on hand ready for instant use at the first sign of every cold. When rubbed on throat and chest, or sniffed up the nose Vicks releases its ingredients in the form of medicated vapors which are breathed in direct to the infected parts.

In addition Vicks acts like a poultice and thus helps the vapors inhaled to break up the congestion.

To prevent colds lowering the vitality and thus paving the way for flu and pneumonia, they should be treated direct and instantly—as you would an infected finger.

"THE SINGING FOOL" starring Al Jolson, is a Warner Bros. picture production of this novel.

SYNOPSIS
Al Stone, singing waiter at Blackie Joe's New York night club, marries Molly Winton, a beautiful singer, not knowing he is loved by Grace Farrel, a loyal little cigarette girl. After Al wins fame as a composer of popular songs, Molly, who has become a diva, is saved by Grace Farrel, and recovers to appear in a Broadway revue. One night he receives a phone call from Molly and rushes to a hospital to find Junior fatally ill. He sings to Junior, but his son dies. Then Al dashes back to the theatre to find he must sing the same song to his audience.

CHAPTER XXX.
The bright lights were on, the stage was empty, the orchestra played the opening bars that heralded Al's entrance. But still he stood in the wings, as if in a trance, fearful of attempting the song he had just sung to his dying child. The orchestra stopped, started again, and the stage manager ran toward Al.

"That's your number, big boy." "I can't sing that song," protested Al. "Not tonight."

The stage manager saw something was wrong, but he didn't know what.

"It's too late to change, now, Al. It's your hit song. Think of the show!"

The show! Al walked on the stage, driven by sheer force of will.

There were the lights, there was the orchestra leader, beyond were the dim sea of faces of the audience. Without knowing it, he fell into his character, the happy, rollicking singing fool. A roar of applause came up and met him like a great wind. He went into his song, believing he could carry on. The stage manager relaxed and turned to Grace. "What's the matter with him?"

Quickly Grace explained and they both watched Al with anxious eyes. Would he make it? He was singing bravely, but it was apparent to their well-trained ears that he was faltering now and then. When he came to the chorus the quaver in his voice was too intense. Once his voice broke entirely.

Suddenly it seemed to Al as if that sophisticated audience didn't exist. Instead of growing faces, he saw hundreds of faces of babies and children, pleading and beckoning to him. Babies and children, who had drifted off into Never Land, and among them Junior! Junior's face and figure came toward him with arms outstretched.

Only Grace understood the dreadful ordeal he was passing through. She felt as if he were sinking into that sea of light while she stood by, unable to aid him. To the audience it seemed as if the intense fervor of Al's singing, keyed close to the breaking point, was only a phase of his skillful rendering, but the musicians caught the occasional minor breaks and glanced up with worried expressions.

Then the end came—Al simply broke off singing in the midst of his song. He stood there, seeing Junior as plainly as he had seen him at the hospital. . . . Where was he? Oh, yes, the theatre, the lights. He tried to rally, choked, and stopped again. Finally the stage manager signalled to have the curtain lowered.

As the curtain came down Grace ran forward and caught Al in her arms. The stage manager was by her side to put an arm about his star singer and help him tional radio hookup from his hotel home here Monday night.

SMITH IN FINAL CAMPAIGN PLANS

 It is the most important effort of his 5 years political career and the democratic presidential nominee is entering upon it with a solemn air. Gone is the well known Smith smile, even the brown derby has been temporarily laid away. His conversation with friends is devoid of the flashes of humor which have always characterized his speech.

Press Meet Off
 The usual daily press conference was called off this afternoon while the Governor threshed out his plans with his manager, John J. Raskob, and others who called at his suite. He did not leave the hotel all day.

The speech in New Jersey Wednesday night will lay down the governor's promises to labor, particularly with respect to the restriction of court injunctions against unions in labor disputes. It also will deal with prohibition, the tariff and the religious activities, which he believes are being promoted against him in various sections of the country.

Closes Saturday
 In accordance with his custom in all his gubernatorial campaigns he will make his Friday night speech in the Brooklyn Academy of Music, and his last big speech of the campaign Saturday night in Madison Square Garden. The Brooklyn speech will deal with state issues and will be directed primarily toward promoting the cause of the democratic state ticket.

The Madison Square Garden address will be the final presentation of the case to the jury before a crowd which local leaders say may surpass and political gathering in history.

Radio Plea
 The Monday night speech will merely be a radio plea to his supporters to go out and cast their votes early Tuesday.

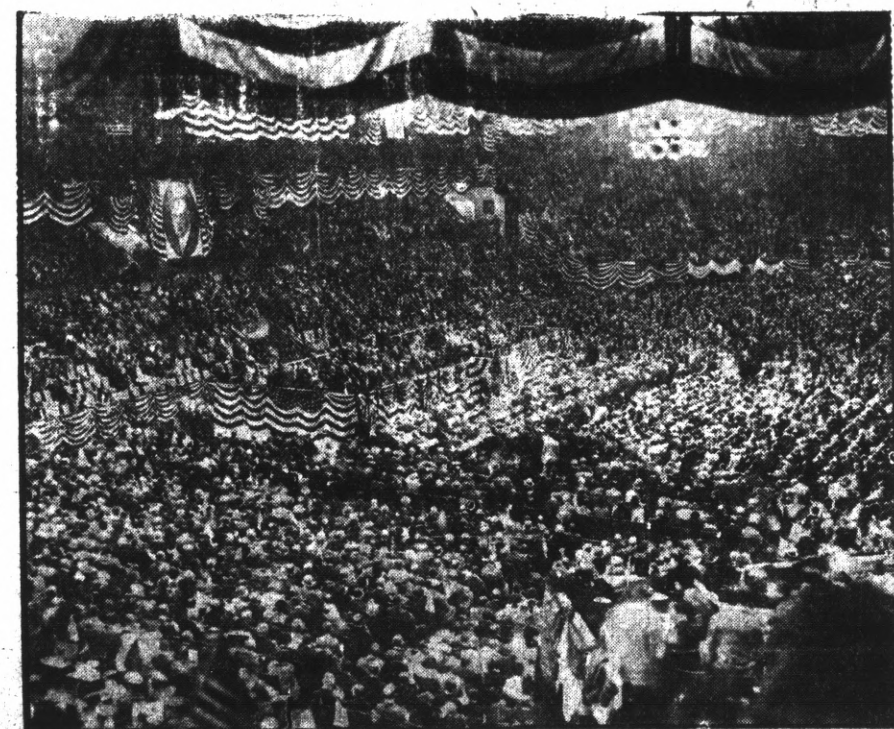

After he delivers it, he will go down to his old east side clubhouse in Oliver street, to sit around and talk with old friends about the prospects of the next day's balloting.

Smith is in excellent health and spirits for this ambitious final program.

MARTINEZ, Oct. 30.—That the Great Western Power company is planning the erection of a substation in Martinez was revealed in the purchase by the corporation of a site for the plant at the junction of Las Juntas and Howard streets. T. B. Swift and O. K. Smith were the former owners of the property.

The report was confirmed by company officials who declared that "major improvements" will be made here with funds to be provided in the company's budget for 1929. Surveyors for the company were in Martinez today laying out lines for the proposed buildings. The Great Western is now rebuilding its line from Valona to Martinez and other improvements in the district are planned.

GRAF ZEPPELIN NEARING HOME

 dirigible's position at 10:40 a. m. (EST) as 52:30 north and 37:40 west, some 1850 miles from New York and about 709 miles from St. Johns, Newfoundland. The Graf Zeppelin's speed at that time was apparently about 65 miles an hour.

Progress of the Graf Zeppelin after leaving the banks of Newfoundland was reported through messages which signaled the craft or communicated by wireless with Dr. Hugo Eckener, the commander.

The Cunard liner, Mauretania, was first to report the silver liner of the air after the worst storm area had been passed. The Mauretania communicated with the dirigible at 6 a. m. (EST) and reported it in latitude 52:30 north, longitude 40:30 west, about 500 miles from St. Johns and north of the steamer lanes.

The S. S. American Banker relayed a message from the Capulin to the United Press London bureau, which said:

"Steamship Capulin at 3:40 p. m. G. M. T. (10:40 EST) sighted the Graf Zeppelin at 52:30 north, 37:40 west, heading east, northwest."

Steady Speed
 This message, coupled with advances sent out from the Graf Zeppelin to her home port, established the dirigible in mid ocean, cruising steadily through a half-gale. The weather reports tonight indicated that as soon as Dr. Eckener was able to guide the aircraft out of the storm area he would encounter favorable weather on the coast of Ireland or the European coast.

The optimistic attitude on those on board the dirigible was reflected in a message which Dr. Eckener sent to the Zeppelin works at Friedrichshafen shortly before noon today.

To Land Wednesday
 "We hope to get out of the storm area," the message said, "reaching the Irish coast Wednesday morning and Friedrichshafen Wednesday night or Thursday."

The Graf Zeppelin had carried 125 passengers, 38 members of the crew and a young stowaway along a route just north of 50 degrees of latitude during the morning and it was indicated that Dr. Eckener might follow approximately the same course on to the western borders of the continent of Europe unless he discovered extremely favorable weather to the south. Weather reports said that favorable conditions existed north of the Azores islands and over nearly the entire eastern half of the Atlantic ocean.

New York, Rome Hop Postponed

ROOSEVELT, N. Y., Oct. 30.—UP.—The proposed flight of the Bellanca monoplane, Columbia, to Rome was postponed today when Roger O. Williams, pilot, announced that weather reports along the route the plane must follow were unfavorable.

With Capt. Pierre Bonelli as navigator, Williams said, another attempt would be made Wednesday if conditions appeared at all favorable.

School nurse says all girls should know this

TALKING to a roomful of high school girls on personal hygiene, experienced district nurse said: "One of the basic rules of health for girls is to keep the system functioning naturally at all times. Normal exercise and diet habits should be encouraged. But when necessary there's no harm in taking nujol, since it works mechanically and can't disturb the normal functions of any organ of the body. Particularly with girls, there are times when nujol should always be taken. Take a spoonful every night for a few days. It's a thoroughly safe and harmless method. It won't cause distress or gas pains or griping."

Nujol is different from any other substance. It contains no drugs or medicine. It can be taken safely no matter how you are feeling. Because it is so pure and harmless, and works so easily, every woman should keep a bottle on hand. Every drugist has this remarkable substance. Get the genuine.

BIRTHDAY FETE CELEBRATED BY KEY

Twenty-five years ago the first electric train of the San Francisco, Oakland and San Jose Railroad company, the predecessor of the Key System, left Berkeley station, San Francisco bound, and a new era of prosperity and transportation for the entire Bay section began. This week with flags gaily flying from masts on ferry boats and buildings, the Key System Transit company is observing its Silver Anniversary.

On Oct. 26, 1903, at 1:00 p. m., George W. Ballantyne climbed into the cab of a four car electric train and, at a signal from Conductor M. Mitchell, 205 passengers, county and city officials, company officers and guests were en route on a maiden transbay trip, inaugurating a new service.

Arriving at the Key System pier terminal at 1:17 p. m., the passengers boarded the ferry boat "Yerba Buena." Capt. W. C. Rasmussen was in the pilot house and A. A. Mausshardt was the chief engineer. These same four men who had charge of the initial trip to San Francisco and who are still in the employ of the Key System, met this week in the office of A. J. Lundberg, president of the transit company, and recounted the incidents of that trip. In the presence of company officials, they were presented with souvenirs, appropriately inscribed, in recognition of their services and the Key System's Silver Anniversary. J. P. Potter, who is now vice president in charge of operations for the Key System, was the first superintendent of the road. He was present to again shake hands with the four and to convey to them a message from their fellow workers.

In 1903 the Key System transbay service consisted of two steamers and sixteen passenger cars. An hourly service was operated: thirty-eight trains in and out of the pier terminal per day. Today there are 464 trains in and out of the pier terminal daily and 660 trains from the six different terminals in the East Bay district direct to the Key System transbay terminal.

The new Buick is the new Style

Men and women on every street--in every city and town--are pronouncing the new BUICK with Masterpiece Bodies by Fisher, the most beautiful automobile of the day.

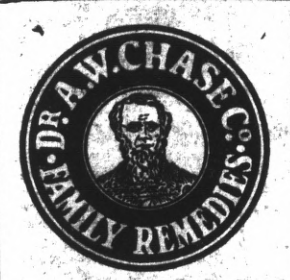

Never before in the history of motor car manufacture have the motorists of America welcomed any new automobile as they are welcoming the Silver Anniversary Buick with new Masterpiece Bodies by Fisher. Sweeping into the market at a time when motor car lines were practically standard--when imitation was destroying individuality--these epic Buick creations introduced an entirely new mode.

A mode of body symmetry--of size and magnificence--of soft contours instead of straight lines--of embossed side and hood panels involving the most costly steel paneling work employed on any car in the world. And as the weeks have passed and the full significance of Buick's achievement has become apparent to the public, enthusiasm for this car has swelled and grown to unprecedented proportions.

Buick sales records have been broken! Production schedules have been increased again and again! The great Buick plans are working to the limit of their capacity to supply the demand.

HOOVER SILENT AS CAMPAIGN NEARS END

revival of the religious issue calls for any further statement from him.

Likewise, it was indicated the republican national committee will ignore Smith's renewed attack. "We have denied and denied those charges," Henry J. Allen, former governor of Kansas and architect of committee publicity, said today, adding he did not think any further reply would be forthcoming from the committee.

Aids May Answer It was explained at Hoover headquarters that if anything is said in reply to Smith it will come from such speakers as Senator Borah of Idaho and former Secretary of State Hughes in their wind-up radio addresses. As in the past, and on other campaign issues, Hoover will leave the matter to his lieutenants.

Hoover spent the morning at his headquarters, clearing his desk of pending campaign details before he leaves for the west Thursday, and in the afternoon completed revision of his St. Louis address in the study of his home.

Western Addresses He also discussed with his advisers the three shorter addresses he will make on his way west, at Cumberland, Md., Louisville, Ky., and Pueblo, Colo. Hoover will discuss campaign issues as far as time permits.

James B. Garfield of Cleveland, a son of President Garfield, who conferred with Hoover today, issued a statement afterward charging Smith with "misrepresentation." Hoover's position on a number of the leading issues, particularly waterpower.

Hallow'en Of Old Enjoyed By Lion's Den

Members of the Richmond Lions club yesterday enjoyed an old-time "Hallow'en hoe-down" affair at the dining room of the Hotel Carquinez. The room was changed into a shady looking resort and a number of the members, dressed in western outfits gave the proper "atmosphere."

Bobbing for apples was carried on by six Lions and Dr. George Boehmer was declared winner. Carl Overa had to pay a dollar as the last to get his apple.

Bottles of tea in hip-pockets gave a pre-Volstead air to the affair, as did the old time bar across one section of the room. A rough and tumble fight between two members of the club resulted in a decision going to Dr. A. B. Hinkley and H. E. Mylander taking the count.

On the committee in charge were Dr. A. B. Hinkley, E. H. Higgins, Claude Clark, J. O. Ford, Ed Hoffman, Al Furrer and H. H. Mylander. A group of entertainers from KLX sang a number of songs.
